POLIO, which struck Mrs. Gloria Markman of Broadmoor during Christmas week of 1952, has cost nearly $21,000 in National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis funds. Money used for treatment of Mrs. Markman and other polio victims is raised each January through the "March of Dimes," which is now in progress. Shown here with Mrs. Markman at her 549 Mac-

Arthur drive home are her two children, Janis, 3½, and Donnie, 5½. Janis, who also contracted polio in 1952 at the age of seven months, has received treatment amounting to about $1000. Mrs. Markman's husband, John, is chairman of the Colma drive, and the entire family urges the support of the "March of Dimes" campaign.

By MONTE DAYTON

Lots of speculation whether BOB ST. CLAIR of Westlake, 49er griddler, will be a candidate for city council.

Our hope is that he won't toss his hat, at least not this time around.

MRS. ANNA SUTTER YOUNG of Daly City, grandchild of California Pioneer JOHN SUTTER, still has a chance at the $50,000 damages which her grandfather claimed were due him from the government for infringement on his land by squatters and prospectors.

Cong. ARTHUR YOUNGER has promised he will re-introduce the nearly 100-year-old claim at his first opportunity.

RUDY TRETEN, former owner of the local cocktail lounge now known as Val's, and a well-known local attorney are still working on that deal to buy a gambling club located between Carson City and Reno, Nev.

Among luminaries extending congrats to new SF Mayor GEORGE CHRISTOPHER in a full-page newspaper ad complete with pictures of the congratulators were localities HENRY DOELGER and TONY RICCI.

JESD TO INVESTIGATE CONVERTIBLE SCHOOL

Authorization to inquire into the cost of renting five houses from Henry Doelger to be converted into 10 classrooms was given Superintendent H. Z. Weibel by the Jefferson Elementary school district board of trustees at a five-hour meeting Wednesday night. The plan, which would be similar to the Oddstad convertible school in Linda Mar, was presented by Larry Freiberg, chairman of the James Snell PTA committee to eliminate double sessions.

Freiberg told the board Wednesday night that his committee and the superintendent recently met with Jack Kendree, Doelger representative, to discuss the proposal. According to Freiberg, Kendree made it clear that Doelger would consider the proposal only by direct request of the board of trustees.

School Plan
As proposed by Freiberg, Doelger houses, located near the Abraham Lincoln school site, would be joined by temporary corridors. The two-floor houses would be unfinished inside, thus providing two classrooms in each building. Weibel had previously objected to Doelger type homes being used as classrooms because of their two-story construction.

Also under consideration during the meeting were 21 other items. Despite recently established policy to adjourn all meetings by 11:30 p.m., the trustees labored through the agenda until 1 a.m. Other business undertaken by trustees included:

To Attend Confab

1. Granted permission to Mrs. Katherine Mullen, Henry Kraus and Weibel to attend an administrative and board members conference in Atlantic City. Policy of the board to bar teachers and other school personnel from attending out-of-state conferences apparently does not apply to trustees and the superintendent.

2. Discussed purchasing a house at 659 Hanover street to be used for two classrooms to relieve double sessions at General Pershing school. The board approved an appraisal of the property.

Hire Ciampi
3. Hired Mario Ciampi as architect for Abraham Lincoln and Pauline Brown schools.

4. Narrowed Abraham Lincoln sites down to two proposals and agreed to ask Doelger to present cost estimates for the site at next meeting of the board.

5. Approved hiring an auditor on a yearly basis.

6. Accepted resignations from Ethel LeRoy, first grade teacher at Woodrow Wilson school, and Janet Edgerly, fourth grade at Crocker school.

7. Hired replacements: Gail Nelson, Benjamin Franklin fifth grade; Lorraine Lee, 87th street first grade; and Noel Ranger, Colma eighth grade.

Callan Tells Why He'll Remove Bodien From Job

County Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma, newly-named chairman of the board, today explained he plans to replace Arthur Bodien as chairman of the county planning commission because "I don't think a man in his position should go running around shouting recall."

Callan announced earlier this week that he intended to replace Bodien, a veteran of 12 years on the commission, when his term expired in July. Bodien was the second high ranking county official to get "walking papers" from Callan. The new board chairman also plans to replace Anthony Gaggero, former Daly City mayor, as a member of the civil service commission, when his term expires.

"I'm not kicking them off," the strong-voiced supervisor said. "These men have served many years under Thomas Hickey's appointments and now it's my appointment when their terms expire."

But Callan elaborated on his reasons for ousting Bodien, former councilman and water department superintendent who was instrumental in forming Better Government for Daly City group, an organization seeking recall of three Daly City councilmen. Bodien is listed as a member of the recall committee, and today affirmed his membership on this group, contrary to a story printed last week in a metropolitan newspaper.

"Do you think a man who is chairman of the county planning commission should go around circulating recall petitions?" asked Callan.

"After all, the county has to deal with these cities on ordinance and other problems and work closely with the councilmen on the sanitation district," he continued. "I feel if Bodien wants to actively work on the recall group, he should resign from the commission. If he doesn't, I'll have to replace him."

Contacted by THE RECORD, Bodien said he had "no comment" on stories that he would be relieved of his county position.

"I was never informed officially," he declared. "The only thing I know is what I've read in the papers. Callan said he was going to dismiss me because I was an appointee of Hickey. If that's a crime, then I'm guilty. Hickey was one of the finest men the county ever produced."

Bodien said he would have some comment when he was officially informed of his impending dismissal. "I imagine Callan would be man enough to say something about it to me if he plans to fire me," Bodien commented.

Ciampi Reverses Stand On School Plan Deadline

Architect Mario Ciampi has reversed his earlier decision to agree to an August 1 deadline in preparing the working plans for the proposed Sharp Park High school, it was revealed at a meeting of the Jefferson Union high school board of trustees Monday night.

At an October 10 board meeting Ciampi reluctantly agreed to the deadline with the stipulation that the board "be reasonable if there are unforeseen delays."

The architect's position was made known Monday night when Ciampi returned his contract with the deadline clause deleted. Ciampi was not present at the meeting.

The action brought immediate objection by Trustee Raymond Whitney, only board member who is a coastside resident. Whitney asked that trustees "get a new architect."

Suggest Private Meet

Superintendent Stanford Han-nah interjected, "I suggest we discuss this matter at the January 23 meeting in private personnel session."

"An architect does not come under personnel," countered Whitney. "He is under contract."

Question of whether the proposed caucus meeting would be a violation of the Brown Act was still unanswered today. The answer apparently lies in whether an architect is considered to be school personnel, according to Lyle Edson of the district attorney's office. Edson declined to give a decision at the present time pending further study.

Whitney continued: "I'll make a motion that we get a new architect. Ciampi's not going to dictate to us as he has in the past." (Continued on Page 2)

Print Notices To Seek Recall Of 3 Daly City Councilmen

SELMI, COUNCIL CLASH OVER COUNTING MONEY

Pennies and nickels took precedence over more weighty financial matters Monday night as City Treasurer Paul Selmi wrangled with City Manager Howard Stites and the council over who should count the coins from the parking meters.

The debate flared into bitter controversy at intervals between Selmi and Acting Mayor Edward J. Dennis.

Selmi, leader of a recall movement against three of the councilmen, demanded to know "if the city ordinance means what it says when it stipulates that the city treasurer shall count the parking meter revenue." He also charged that a letter asking the council for an official interpretation on the ordinance had failed to reach the councilmen because it was side-tracked by Stites.

Changed In October

"In October you changed the set-up," said Selmi. "Now the license collector counts the money. And there's only been one time that the deposit tags agreed with the bank's statement."

"What I want to know is am I responsible for these discrepancies? Do you want to abide by the ordinance or follow Stites's orders and refuse to let me use the counting machine?" Selmi impounded.

Dennis answered, "The ordinance says you should count the money. Have you ever counted it?"

"Ask the city attorney about it," replied Selmi.

"No, I'm asking you," shot back Dennis.

"No, I never have," was Selmi's reply.

Selmi explained that he got his statement from the armored car company which transported the money to the bank and that the city attorney had told him this could be done legally. "So I never counted it," continued Selmi.

Dennis then asked Selmi if he had kept the parking meter money in his office, to which the treasurer answered in the affirmative. "Isn't it a poor policy?" queried the acting mayor.

"No," said Selmi.

Later on Selmi told Dennis that, "You want to give the people the idea I've got money stuck away. I'll run my office my way, not for a dictator."

"You're out of order," snapped Dennis.

Daly City To Keep Land Assessing And Tax Collecting Jobs

The highly controversial plan to transfer city tax collecting and property assessing to San Mateo county was scrapped temporarily by the city council Monday night.

The council's unanimous decision was to wait at least another year before considering the change.

At two previous council meetings a number of citizens had protested transfer of the functions to the county on the grounds that the jobs were already being handled capably and that the move would eventually result in higher taxes for Daly City.

City Manager Howard Stites, who proposed the change, estimated that the city could save from $5000 to $10,000 a year by having the county handle the two tax functions.

In rejecting the plan for the coming year, the council did, however, call for further investigation on the change.

Acting Mayor Edward Dennis said, "We'll wait and see how this program works out in other cities who have the county collect taxes and handle assessing."

COURT UPHOLDS FIRING OF DC COP INSPECTOR

The firing of David Johnstone Jr. from his post as Daly City police inspector was upheld Thursday by Superior Judge Edmund Scott.

The judge had taken the case under submission more than three months ago.

John J. Fahey Jr., attorney for the 39-year-old officer, had sought a writ of mandate ordering the city council to reinstate the former inspector on the grounds that he was innocent of charges that he associated with known gamblers and failed to report all investigations to his superior officers. Johnstone was fired on May 23.

In his ruling, Judge Scott said, "We have carefully considered the record in this matter, including transcript of proceedings held by the civil service board of review, as well as the exhibit, and in our opinion, it is necessary for us to deny the writ of mandate."

After three lengthy and tempestuous hearings, the local board of review voted unanimously for Johnstone's reinstatement, but the city council upheld their original decision to fire the police inspector.

WATER DISCOUNT ENDS IN MONTH

Ordinance which eliminates the 25-cent per month discount for prompt payment of water bills was adopted by the city council Monday night.

The new ruling will take effect February 8, 30 days after its adoption.

Up to now, all users who paid their bi-monthly water bill before the 15th of the month following receipt of the bill received a 50-cent discount, or 25 cents a month.

The city instituted the new plan to bring in some $10,000 a year in revenue.

Julius Castelan, former city engineer, told the council Monday that, "in effect, you're raising taxes $3 a year in a nice easy way. It amounts to about a 9½ per cent increase."

Acting Mayor Edward Dennis countered by pointing out, "We have the lowest water rate of any (Continued on Page 2)"

BROADMOOR POLICE ASK D.A. REPORT ON FISCAL POLICY

Broadmoor police commission, at their meeting Wednesday night, asked for a written statement from District Attorney Keith Sorenson on the legality of certain procedures attacked last week in the Baughman report.

Baughman's report sharply criticized certain fiscal policies of the Broadmoor Police and Colma Fire districts.

Chief Ray Savage said Sorenson's statement would probably be available Monday.

NEW NAME, MORE MEMBERS OK'D FOR BOARD OF REVIEW

An amending ordinance which changes name of civil service board of review to personnel board and increases membership of that body to five was adopted by the city council Monday night.

The legislation will take effect in 30 days. The commissioners to fill the newly-created posts have already been selected by the council. They are Paul Hupf and Starr Dunham.

Notice of intention to seek signatures for the recall of three Daly City councilmen was published today in THE RECORD.

The notices, a separate one for each councilman, were signed by City Treasurer Paul Selmi, leader of the recall group, Ruth A. Mosely, 26 Rice street, and Andrew Van Der Werff, 80 Miriam street. They signed, respectively, the notices for Del Wilson, Sanford Vickers and Micheal De Bernardi.

Fog Shrouds Westlake Fire In Apartment

An apartment fire in Westlake, apparently caused by a burning cigarette, did an estimated $1500 damage early this Thursday morning as heavy fog and wrong directions impeded the fire department's efforts to reach the blaze.

The fire started about 1:30 a.m. in the apartment of Mrs. Sherry King, 50 Bel Mar, gutting the living quarters and destroying all the furnishings, including appliances, according to Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy. Smoke from the flames seeped through to an adjacent apartment at 56 Bel Mar, occupied by Russ Cline, and resulted in minor damage.

Mrs. King first attempted to quell the blaze herself, then notified a maintenance man who tried to contact the local police department. Several neighbors detecting the smoke, also phoned the police, and one of the callers gave the wrong address of 144 Bel Mar, Kennedy explained. Fog shrouded the area and firemen were unable to see any sign of a fire when they reached the false address, but finally the correct location was radioed to the engine.

Tow Truck Causes $90 Damage To Park In Cop Car Rescue

An estimated $90 damage was caused to Marchbanks park December 28 when a Westlake tow truck barreled across the baseball infield to rescue a police car, it was revealed today.

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi declared that driver of the police car, Rookie Officer Frank Murray, was patrolling the park when the car became stuck in the mud "in the vicinity of the left field foul line between third base and the left field wall."

Murray radioed the tow truck service for help, and with the truck's arrival, the damage was done, the chief said. The $90 estimate was given by August Conci, city gardener, Petrocchi declared.

The rookie officer has been instructed by superiors to hereafter inspect the grounds on foot and not by car.

Ironically, Selmi was one of Wilson's chief backers in the 1954 election.

All three persons signing the legal papers are members of the Better Government for Daly City Group, a political organization which was founded shortly after the firing of Daly City police inspector David Johnstone Jr. last spring.

Wait 21 Days

The recall group must wait 21 days after publication of the notice before they can solicit signatures. A total of 1200 signatures on each of the three petitions will be needed to force the election.

In addition to the three persons signing the recall notices, other members of the recall committee of the Better Government group are Herman Kalinin, Nate Pearlman and Arthur Bodien.

In the notice of recall, reasons given for removal of the three councilmen are: "Disregard of the rights and wishes of the people of Daly City; sanctioning questionable bidding procedures on purchases by Daly City of equipment involving the expenditure of many thousands of dollars; and incompetence and permitting the violation of legally required fiscal procedures."

The notice concludes by saying, "The undersigned citizen, taxpayer and voter therefore feel that the government and welfare of the City of Daly City can no longer be left in the hands of this councilman and sincerely urges his recall."

H. Ward Dawson Jr., San Francisco attorney, is handling the legal end of the recall proceedings.

No Candidates Yet

Contacted by THE RECORD today, Selmi said his group had no candidates for council should the recall be successful. "After we have the necessary signatures then the candidates will present themselves. They don't want to (Continued on Page 2)"

STREET BRAWL ENDS IN ARREST FOR DC AND SOUTH CITY MEN

Disturbing the peace charges were lodged against two men Friday night when police were called to quell a fight in front of the Central club, 6262 Mission street.

Scheduled to appear in municipal court next Thursday are Gerald Powers, 27, a painter of 82 Garwood drive, and Virgil Smith, 21, a laborer of 220 Linden avenue, South San Francisco.

Both are free on $25 bail.

After officers quieted the two pugilists they said they took Smith to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment of a face cut, after which he was escorted to the city jail for booking.

Circulate Petitions On Double Sessions

Petitions asking the Jefferson Elementary school district board of trustees to provide enough classrooms to eliminate double sessions and the use of multi-purpose rooms for classes began circulating this week, THE RECORD learned today.

Sponsoring the action is the James L. Snell PTA committee for the elimination of double sessions.

Larry Freiberg, chairman of the committee, said today that the group hopes to show the board that feeling against inadequately housed school children is general throughout the district.

Specifically, the petition asks that the board relieve the situation by leasing or renting temporary buildings as soon as possible.

At the request of the committee, trustees agreed Wednesday night to contact Henry Doelger about renting an Oddstad-type convertible school near the Abraham Lincoln site to the school.

"It appears that in the Fall of 1956 there will be 60 classes on double sessions or inadequately housed in multi-purpose rooms," the petition reads. "If construction goes according to schedule, with the opening of Benjamin Franklin school in January, 1957, there will still be 11 classrooms short of the number needed to take the children off double sessions or out of multi-purpose rooms."

Freiberg declared that the petitions would be presented to the board within a month's time.

Selmi, Council Clash Over Counting Money

Selmi, "I want an answer to my letter on file."

Dennis then charged that Selmi "didn't act very decent when I was in your office today." "You inferred that you were going to take me outside and beat me up," the treasurer retorted.

"Very insulting!" Dennis, visibly angered, said, "That's very insulting. Your wife was present. Ask her if I said anything like that."

After an interlude in which tavern owner George Kirchhubel questioned the council about what he considered unfair practices in purchasing, Selmi arose to speak again.

Dennis spoke before Selmi: "If you can conduct yourself like a gentleman, then you can have the floor."

"That's not a very nice thing to say," Selmi answered. He continued by asking, "What I want to know is did the letter I sent come to the attention of the council?"

Councilman Michael De Bernardi said he hadn't read the contents but knew it had been brought to his attention by Stites in a study session. Councilman Del Wilson said emphatically that he had seen the letter, while Dennis said he had not seen the original letter but was aware of its contents.

Stites reminded councilmen that, "I submitted it to you last Tuesday. You (the council) told me to work with the city attorney to prepare an answer for Selmi."

Stites only rebuttal to Selmi's complaints was that, "We agreed to have the money brought into the accounting office at a time convenient for Selmi so he could count the money. It never was suggested that he couldn't count it."

City Attorney Frank Blum said it was not a legal question but merely a matter of just where the counting machine should be kept.

Jerome Scharfman, city controller who supervises counting of the money, said, "This talk about discrepancies is hearsay. One month the bank credited us with more money than we had counted. There's no question of a shortage. It's just that the bank says we have more than we deposited."

"Any convenient place to count the money is all right," related Blum.

Selmi demanded to know, "Who is the authority? The money from the parking meters never jibes. We can never reconcile the tags."

He said the Better Government Group would probably hold a meeting next week to discuss the handling of petitions.

Should there be sufficient signatures to force a recall election, the voters will also be asked to decide whether new councilmen, should the recall be successful, be chosen by appointment or by a special election.

The city treasurer said his group would not campaign for either method but would "let that take care of itself."

Selmi, treasurer for eight years, said he would seek re-election to his post on the April ballot.

Ciampi Reverses Stand On School Plan Deadline

Blames Whitney

"That's what we thought before we signed Ciampi," interrupted Mrs. Mildred McGein. "You are the one who wanted us to sign Ciampi so we could get going."

She added, "I don't care what you do." Mrs. McGein has announced that she will not seek reelection to the board this Spring.

Trustee Elio Fontana, referring to an interview of architects by the board last Fall, declared, "Every architect said that minimum time to prepare plans would be a year, and we're asking Ciampi to get them out in seven months."

"Was 10 Months?"
"It was 10 months when we asked him," Whitney insisted, "and it will be five months when we get it settled."

Hannah explained that Ciampi's firm is small and that the board should not expect service as available in a large organization.

"Then is the job too big for him?" questioned Whitney. "I don't think we should let a contract for the school without a time limit."

Other board members murmured agreement.

Hannah suggested that the board redraw Ciampi's contract, asking a May 1, 1957, deadline. The superintendent claimed that the May 1 time limit would still allow opening of bids on July 1 and actual completion of the school in the Fall of 1959.

"Not Enough Time"
The superintendent's plan was queried by Mrs. Vivian Schember, Laguna Salada trustee, who said

FELONY DRUNK DRIVE CASE CERTIFIED TO SUPERIOR COURT

A San Francisco airline mechanic, charged with felony drunk driving, was certified to superior court by Judge Thomas L. Bocci of municipal court Tuesday.

Russell Thompson, 31, 575-A 43rd avenue, San Francisco, was arrested after an accident at Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards December 15 in which two persons were injured. Shelley J. Smith, 254 Abbot avenue, and his wife, Lorraine, were both treated at Junipero Serra hospital. Smith was the driver of the second car in the collision.

San Francisco Bay is one of the few places in the world where common salt is recovered from seawater on a large scale by solar evaporation.

she doubted that the May 1 deadline would allow enough time. Mrs. Schember recalled that the architects interviewed by the board had stated building periods of 18 months.

"Sunnyvale High school will be ready for occupation in 12 months, and Hillsdale High school was ready in 14 months," answered Hannah.

Mrs. Schember remarked that these schools were the "exception, not the rule."

Second suggestion from the audience came from Donald Miller, also a member of the Laguna Salada board. Miller asked that the board table decision until a new superintendent is chosen. Hannah's retirement will take effect at the end of the school year, and trustees hope to name a successor next month.

Discussion on the subject waned, and decision was tabled.

'March Of Dimes' Aids Polio Victim

John, who is employed by Standard Oil company in San Francisco, notified the National Foundation, and "they took over." Markman is presently co-chairman of the Colma Dimes drive.

During the early days of her treatment when her very life was in jeopardy, around-the-clock nurses were needed. The tremendous expense of this and other medical care was paid by Foundation "March of Dimes" funds.

"When I entered Morrison Rehabilitation center, I could only sit up for a very few hours at a time," Mrs. Markman said in telling about the treatment at Morrison, one of two California centers supported with "March of Dimes" donations.

Wheelchair Locomotion
Mrs. Markman recalled treatment in which she spent long hours in a class called "Wheelchair Locomotion," a difficult talent for polio victims to master, particularly if they have little use of their arms.

"I still have trouble with the chair and sometimes get stuck on a rug at home," the Broadmoor woman explained.

In order to develop strength in Mrs. Markman's arms, the Morrison staff planned therapy to exercise her muscles. Mrs. Markman now has about half the normal strength in her arms.

Strikes Daughter
While she was still receiving treatment, it became known that the Markman's youngest child, Janis, had apparently contacted polio. Janis, thought now to have been stricken at the age of seven months, did not show any signs of having had infantile paralysis until she started to walk.

Doctors observed that one of her legs was shorter than the other, which necessitated her wearing a brace until last May. Here again, NFIP help was offered, and about $1000 has been given so far for Janis' treatment.

"We were lucky that Janis was not more badly stricken," Mrs. Markman commented, "and Donnie (five-and-a-half-year-old son) escaped altogether."
"We don't know what we would have done without March of Dimes help, and I urge all persons to support the current drive," she declared.

Propose Full Pay For Injured Daly City Employees

A proposal that all city employees injured while on duty receive full compensation during their absence was forwarded to the civil service board of review for recommendation by the city council Monday night.

City Manager Howard Stites said the municipal firemen and policemen already receive such a benefit, but other employees are granted only state compensation while incapacitated.

The issue was brought about after the Civil Service Employees association asked full compensation for John Haley, a water department worker injured on duty who has been out of work for 11 weeks.

Stites pointed out that Haley's case was the only one to occur during the year, and that to provide compensation would have cost $1157 up to now, minus the portion paid by the state.

The manager said in many instances the city would not suffer a loss by such payments, since parties found liable for the accidents would have to pay all medical expenses and salary costs.

South City To Annex Piece Of Colma Town

Colma Town council Wednesday night unanimously approved exclusion of town property on El Camino Real which is sought for annexation by South San Francisco.

The property, located at the southern limits of Colma, is owned

THUMBS DOWN ON THIS CLUB

Except for the more violent displays of wrath by Mother Nature, the recent bad weather was survived quite admirably in Daly City. Floods, which wrought the most damage in other communities, were avoided here by what appeared to be at least near-adequate drainage facilities.

Because of the siege of rain which did bring real damage to some areas, we are again confronted with the prospect of a county-wide, or at least north-county, drainage district.

Most ardent proponents are naturally the cities hardest hit. They have our sympathy.

At the same time we do not feel the citizens of Daly City should be called upon to support another taxing district when the need here does not warrant it.

Daly City currently has on the drawing board plans for drainage installations which will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

These projects, if ever consummated, will be paid for by persons living in the specific areas affected by the water run-off, and payment will be based on benefit.

With addition of these facilities, Daly City's drainage problem will be virtually non-existent. In a period of intense downpour we take it for granted there is going to be water running high in some locations, but to construct drains to take care of the absolute maximum rainfall is prohibitive, as any municipal engineer will attest to.

Why, then, should Daly City participate financially in a vast flood drainage control program which would be merely redundant?

We are cautious, even apprehensive, when the word "district" is bantered around.

To enter into a district, there must be an acute need. As we see it, there is no justification for Daly City's participation in another tax-levying entity. We're already members of some 14. Let's leave this club to the organizers.

IT WAS JIMMY'S FAULT

Perhaps your little boy or girl has come running into the house upon occasion crying, "My toy got broken. But it wasn't my fault. It was Jimmy's fault."

And maybe you've felt sorry for the child because after all, he was just a child, and maybe it was Jimmy's fault.

There are all too many adults who have never grown past the "It was Jimmy's fault" stage of their development. They still try to pass their woes on to Jimmy.

Any traffic court judge could tell you about countless cases in which the defendant whines, "But judge, it wasn't my fault. And whose fault was it? Well, the fault might have been anyone's from the weatherman's, to the bad roads to the fact that his wife picked a fight just before he left home.

And try as we may, we cannot find it in our hearts to condone any of these excuses insofar as keeping out of traffic accidents is concerned. If you are involved in a winter traffic accident, and are maimed or killed, or worse yet, if you maim or kill someone else, it doesn't help one iota to say, "It wasn't my fault."

We think it's high time that you as a driver realize that it's YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to know all the facts about the hazards of winter driving, and to know how to drive safely in spite of them. If you don't know these facts, and can't or won't take the time and effort necessary to learn them, then we think it's up to you to stay out of your car in winter weather. Winter driving takes a completely different set of driving skills and driving attitudes, and it's your responsibility to learn them.

The old adage about the Lord helping them who help themselves applies especially well to safe driving.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

COUNCILMAN LAUDS JOB BY POUNDMASTER

Editor:
Just three months ago Poundmaster Charles Maschinot met with our city council to arrive at a solution to eliminate dogs and cats straying on our city streets.

It was unanimously agreed that to solve this serious problem a strong animal ordinance would have to be adopted. Immediately the council prepared and passed Ordinance 415 "Dog Leash Law." It is indeed gratifying to report that Poundmaster Maschinot is enforcing the law, as he recently cited a local resident for violation of this ordinance. Since November 17, effective date of the ordinance, no dog has been reported killed by an automobile—indicating that most citizens are cooperating with the poundmaster.

In the event a stray dog appears in your neighborhood, please phone PL 5-4212 and report the incident. In closing I wish to extend my sincere thanks to Poundmaster Maschinot for doing an outstanding job for the benefit of all the citizens of Daly City.

Marines Thank County For Aid In Toy Drive

January 5, 1956

My dear Mr. Bradshaw:
A great many children enjoyed a Merry Christmas this year, complete with unexpected dolls, games and other toys, because of the generosity of the warm hearted people of San Mateo county. The success of the "Toys for Tots" program certainly reflects the friendly spirit of our community.

Those of us in the 7th Infantry Battalion and 1st Tank Company, United States Marine Corps Reserve, would like to take this means to thank everyone who donated toys to "Toys for Tots." We wish we could thank everyone personally. We do extend a standing invitation to visit us at any time at our training center opposite Tanforan Race Track on El Camino Real in San Bruno.

Our deep appreciation is expressed to THE RECORD and all the people on your staff. Your support was a most important factor in the success of the 1955 "Toys for Tots" campaign.

The entire experience has been for us most satisfying. Again, our thanks to everyone.

RAISED hands indicate eagerness to answer questions in Miss Doris Duecker's seventh grade class at Colma school. THE RECORD's visit to the seventh grade room represents the last in a series on instruction in the Jefferson Elementary school district. "What Do They Learn?" Subjects in the seventh and eight grades are chosen both to review and expand past instruction and to provide preparation for high school. THE RECORD photo

Why Do They Learn?

Elementary 7th And 8th Grades Review, Expand Past Studies

Elementary school seventh and eighth graders have reached a period in their lives when they are beyond the lower elementary level and not quite up to high school age. Thus their curriculum is planned both to review and expand past instruction and to provide preparation for high school.

In order to see these practices in action, a reporter from THE RECORD visited the seventh grade class of Miss Doris Duecker at Colma school. Miss Duecker, who is now in her third year with the district, is a graduate of Cornell college.

First 10 minutes of the time was taken by the pledge of allegiance, roll call and announcements. This over, students began their studies for the day.

Scheduled from 8:51 to 9:50 a.m. was arithmetic. Miss Duecker began the lesson on the relationship between fractions, per cents and decimals by selecting a child to read a problem from the text book.

6 To Per Cent

"Change 6 to a per cent" was typical of the problems.

First answer, "6 per cent," brought a gasp from the other youngsters.

"Is that right, Ed?" asked Miss Duecker of one of her students.

His answer was negative, and he gave the correct answer of 60 per cent.

Miss Duecker explained to the class that a decimal is moved to the right two units at which place the percentage sign is placed.

Following the oral exercise, the teacher gave the class a written test consisting of 51 problems. The exam covered changing decimals to per cents, changing per cents to decimals, changing fractions to per cents and giving the four ways in which percentage may be shown using the number 6.

Typical Questions

Typical questions in the first four categories were: change 0.40 to a per cent, change 4.25 to a decimal, change 20 per cent to a fraction, and change 5/7 to a per cent.

In the study of arithmetic, Miss Duecker explained that she normally uses the first three days for new work. Thursday for review and Friday for testing.

At 9:50 a.m. the class began their spelling lesson which took the next 15 minutes. Spelling is normally held four days out of the week, the other day being devoted to music.

Spelling words on the test given the day this reporter was present included the following: stationery, oblige, quote; accustomed, purchased, expensive, execution, agreeable, consideration, kingdom, irregular, drain, stationary, mourn, throne, Spain, Portugal, England and colonial.

Correlates Subjects

Miss Duecker explained that she always inserts words in spelling lessons which are used in the teaching of other subjects, which practice is seen by the last four words in the above test.

Promptly at 10:06 a.m. the youngsters lined up to go out to recess, and promptly, but apparently not as eagerly, they filed back into the classroom 10 minutes later.

The next 35 minutes was scheduled for language study. Lesson for the day was singular and plural of nouns, with emphasis on changing words ending in s or z to the plural by adding es.

"You're Growing Up"

Study on health was next on the day's agenda from 10:54 to 11:29 a.m. Particular subject for the day in the text book, "You're Growing Up," concerned body changes due to anger, fear, excitement or other emotions.

Children were selected to read a page aloud and then followed discussion. First came a story of a boy's fear and worry over a forthcoming basketball game, and then explanations of his body changes were presented.

"How many of you have ever had that feeling of butterflies in your stomachs?" asked Miss Duecker. "I can assure you, I have."

Only three youngsters failed to raise their hands.

"I guess we can trust these three students never to be nervous," Miss Duecker laughed.

Eager To Tell

The children were eager to tell of their own experiences.

"One day I was talking on the phone, and I saw a big shadow," declared one girl. "My knees started shaking." The shadow turned out to be a dog.

Another youngster told how she developed hiccoughs when she was learning to swim because of fear.

Health studies are held every Friday by Miss Duecker's class. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday science is taught, while on Monday, the time from 10:16 to 11:29 a.m. is devoted to home economics for the girls and to woodshop for the boys.

Science in the seventh grade is devoted to the study of air, water, food, light and heat, weather and climate, plant and animals, health and conservation.

Following the lunch hour, the youngsters spend from 12:29 to 2:02 p.m. on social studies. Year's work of the seventh grade is the Eastern Hemisphere. At the present time, Miss Duecker's pupils are busy with the study of Italy's development, relationships and present problems.

Before continuing to Africa, Asia Minor and Asia, seventh graders will complete their study of European countries.

"They've made a special request that we visit Paris in the Spring," Miss Duecker commented.

Following social studies, children spend the next 30 minutes in physical education activity.

"Activity" period, name given to the last period of the school day, varies with the individual teacher. Miss Duecker explained that she devotes the 38-minute session to study, trips, class government or exhibits presented by the students. Members of the Colma school band or choral group leave their classroom for practice during this last period.

Ruralists Get $270 In Radiator Cores

Cutting an entrance out of the sheet metal wall, burglars escaped with $270 of auto radiator cores last weekend at A & O Waste Co., 329 Third avenue, Colma.

Broadmoor police said the establishment was entered sometime between 3:45 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday. Thirty five of the radiator cores were stolen.

COUNTY BOARD MEETS MONDAY WITH GRAND JURY

County board of supervisors have been extended an invitation to meet with the grand jury Monday night, presumably to receive transcript of the jury's sessions in which official censure of County Manager Robert Stallings was sought.

The board was scheduled to receive the transcript of the censure proceedings Tuesday at their regular meeting, but Chairman Tom Callan Sr. of Colma said he would not allow the item on the agenda because it came up too late.

The jury's invitation to the board did not stipulate what business was on Monday's agenda, but it was believed Stallings' case would come up at that time.

Stallings has been severely criticized by the jury for awarding contract on jobs over $2000 without advertising for bids and for purchasing supplies without proper requisitions.

PETE MARKOVICH TO HEAD SCHOOL LOAN CAMPAIGN

Peter Markovich told THE RECORD today that he will accept the Jefferson Elementary school board's request that he head a citizens committee to seek voter approval of a $2,500,000 state loan election on March 27. Markovich, who has been chairman of two elementary and three high school bond election committees, has seen successful results each time.

Decision to ask the local insurance agent, 160 Northgate avenue, to lead the committee was made Wednesday night by the trustees. The board also passed a resolution calling for an election for the state funds.

If voters give their approval at the March election, trustees will be authorized to borrow up to $2,500,000 in Chapter 19 state funds. The $2,500,000 figure includes estimated state funds needed to complete Vista Grande, Vista Del Mar and Abraham Lincoln schools plus any further building required in the future.

Estimated figure for completing the three schools without provision for future planning is $1,258,190.

The district currently pays 26 cents out of its $1.55 per $100 tax rate to repay state loans already in existence. Re-payments to the state on Chapter 19 loans are made on a basis of ability to pay, and if a district is impoverished, a moratorium can be placed on the loan.

A blind corner is potentially dangerous for two reasons — you can't see the other car approaching and he can't see you. Always approach a blind corner with the assumption that another car is coming, says the CSAA. If you do, you'll be ready for the fellow who forgets to slow down.

Salute Printing Week Jan. 15-21

"Little Ben" or "Miss Printing Week of 1956?" Which will it be? Peninsula Graphic Arts association members today are waging whether it will be a new born baby boy or girl who will reign over their third annual Printing Week celebration January 15-21.

The first baby born on Tuesday, Jan. 17, Benjamin Franklin's birthdate, will be given the honor and a $25 savings bond and a complete supply of birth announcements. The competition will be among five hospitals—Peninsula, San Mateo Community, Mills Memorial, Sequoia and Palo Alto hospitals. The first tot to weigh in will be greeted by Stanley Grys, of Redwood City, Printing Week chairman, and by Logan Franklin, South San Francisco newspaper man, who is a descendant of Benjamin Franklin. The duo will present the awards to the baby's family.

Printing Week will officially begin here Monday, Jan. 16, when displays in print and other graphic arts shops will occupy a prominent spot.

"Printing Week is a salute to an industry whose existence has been a dynamic constructive force in the cultural advancement of mankind," Grys reminded as he urged residents of every community between Daly City and Mountain View to join in the nationwide salute.

News From Here & There

By Eleanor Doyle

Hi to you, Herb Ashton, down there in the City of Hope hospital. Glad to hear that you were able to be with your family over the holidays. Very happy to hear that you are improving, so keep up the good work.

Quite a disappointed guy these days is Bobby Porcelli of 47 Peoria street. Seems that he has been forgotten by so many of his friends and school mates. So how about you readers sending a get well card to this boy. He's been in bed since April with rheumatic fever and needs some cheering up.

Danny Reylance of Second avenue started the new year out in style, with a mild case of mumps to help him celebrate. How, when and where Danny acquired the visitor seems to be a mystery. But last report from Mom was that Danny will be up and out soon.

A late birthday wish goes to David Jacobsen of Abbot, who with a group of his buddies, enjoyed a luncheon and theater party last week to help celebrate his eleventh birthday. Hear that dear old Dad celebrated a birthday too, so many happy returns, Jake. Now put down the paper and get back to the painting.

After his recent enlistment Gerald Gruenwald enjoyed a seven day furlough with his folks on Gambetta street. Private Gerald writes his folks that he is very happy in his new surroundings and now busy with basic training at Fort Ord.

Many happy returns to Mrs. Muriel Muzio of Willits who celebrated a very important birthday last week. With Muriel adding another year, Daly City gained another voter.

The Steele family on East Vista are patiently awaiting news as to when their daughter Bonnie Lynn will leave here to enter a hospital in Minneapolis, Minn. In order to save Bonnie's life surgery is needed to correct an abnormal heart condition that this three-year-old girl was born with. Her mother will accompany her on her first plane trip and will stay until Bonnie is able to come home. Mr. and Mrs. Steele highly praise the Crippled Children's Service for making this operation possible for their daughter. So let's all hope and pray that Bonnie will be completely well real soon.

Whenever five-year-old Micheal Stark gets bored with being stuck in doors, he's been trying without much success to count the chicken pox marks on his body. Hear that Mike has had a severe case. He is trying very hard to share them with his brother, Richard, but his sister Susan would rather be alone so she has been avoiding the boys.

Latest one to celebrate a birthday on C street is Master David Stone, who with a group of friends and playmates celebrated his sixth birthday.

The Eljoy Burkey home on C street was the scene of merriment, when many friends gathered to help the folks welcome in the New Year.

The New Year week was a hectic one for Ann and Owen McNealy of Abbot, with Owen's father from Dallas, Texas, visiting the folks for a few days. It was a special event for the two McNealy children, when Betty Ann and Virginia Ruth met their grandfather for the very first time. Hear that he was quite impressed with his lovely granddaughters and enjoyed every minute with them. During the week the folks have been entertaining Owen's grandmother from Wheatland, Calif., and she too enjoyed a wonderful week of seeing the town. A few days ago the folks put on their party clothes and helped their daughter Virginia Ruth celebrate her fourth birthday.

Before we get off Abbot again hear that another Dad celebrated a birthday last week. So many happy returns to you Gene Snow.

Recent visitors to our city were the parents of Mrs. Helen Axt of Theta, who enjoyed a week's visit with their daughter and grandchildren over the holidays. Dad, who is a merchant seaman aboard the President Jackson, was unable to be with his family this year. He spent his Christmas in Bona-phone that one of her children was very seriously hurt. After a further check up to be the work of a practical joker.

Hear Miss Gloria Claranti of Temptation will soon enter the St. Francis hospital, where she will part with her first body cast. After some therapy treatments a second body cast will be put on, which she will be in for another three months. So here's hoping that the next three months fly by for a certain young miss.

Belated wishes to Hank Leavitt who welcomed in the new year by celebrating another birthday. Hear that a lovely dinner and birthday cake helped this Dad to celebrate the day.

News From Callan Heights

Happy birthday to Richard Winters and John Crowther, cousins who claim the same birth date. A large family gathering helped John to celebrate that ever so important day when he could claim to be a full fledged teenager, while Master Richard happily blew out two candles on his cake.

A late birthday wish goes to Cathy Horne, who with a group of playmates celebrated her third birthday last Saturday.

Many happy returns to you, Miss Linda Tricieri of Lausanne who will be celebrating her very first birthday January 15.

A very bad case of croup bronchitis kept Dennis in St. Joseph's hospital for almost a week. Last report from the Harveys is that Master Dennis is home and that all is well.

When five-year-old Micheal Stark gets bored with being stuck in doors, he's been trying without much success to count the chicken pox marks on his body. Hear that Mike has had a severe case. The Eljoy Burkey home on C street was the scene of merriment, when many friends gathered to help the folks welcome in the New Year.

The New Year week was a hectic one for Ann and Owen McNealy of Abbot, with Owen's father from Dallas, Texas, visiting the folks for a few days. It was a special event for the two McNealy children, when Betty Ann and Virginia Ruth met their grandfather for the very first time. Hear that he was quite impressed with his lovely granddaughters and enjoyed every minute with them. During the week the folks have been entertaining Owen's grandmother from Wheatland, Calif., and she too enjoyed a wonderful week of seeing the town. A few days ago the folks put on their party clothes and helped their daughter Virginia Ruth celebrate her fourth birthday.

Before we get off Abbot again hear that another Dad celebrated a birthday last week. So many happy returns to you Gene Snow.

Recent visitors to our city were the parents of Mrs. Helen Axt of Theta, who enjoyed a week's visit with their daughter and grandchildren over the holidays. Dad, who is a merchant seaman aboard the President Jackson, was unable to be with his family this year. He spent his Christmas in Bona-

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

One of the happiest New Year's parties held in the Villages was the one given by Michael and Bobby Kolb on Ellis street. The hosts, ages 8 and 6 respectively, entertained their guests in the family garage, decorated with all the neighborhood Christmas trees they could commandeer and hung with balloons. Bryce Stockslager, Carolyn Ralph, Joey and Gary Cliff, Jack and Donny Mitchell and Linday Nagy all enjoyed cookies, several varieties of Koolade and candy, and threw confetti and generally welcomed the New Year in, in their own enthusiastic way.

Here and there: The Carl Foss family spent a few days with the Ray Logans on 90th street between holidays; they left somewhat hurriedly when the second storm threatened to cut off the road back to Sacramento. . . . Richard and Toni Waller are new Maddux residents for a while. The child population of that street has now increased by three! . . . Welcome also to the Hayes family, who are new Washington residents, replacing the Gordon Peters, who moved to San Anselmo before Christmas. . . . Wonder how 88th street's Bill Beck is coming in his house-painting project? . . . Inside, that is! . . . Marion and Eddie Olsen had a happy Christmas household when Marion's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rogers, came up Village Lane way from San Diego.

Postpone Trip
Fran and Fran Dethlefsen were supposed to go down to Ben Lomond for a family Christmas, but had to stay home on Foothill when the storms came, so they went down for New Year's Day dinner instead. The Ben Lomond home is the summer place belonging to Frank's parents, and, fortunately, suffered no damage. It wasn't the gayest of New Year's Days, though, for a close family friend had been one of those killed when the bridge at Mt. Hermon was hit by the flood waters.

Washington street's John LePines had family in the Yuba City flooded area. John's father only had water in one room of his house, but John's brother's home was completely filled with water and mud, and the cleaning up process was backbreaking. John spent three days up there helping, and brought a lot of things back with him to be cleaned and repaired. Then, with some time coming vacation-wise, the whole LePine family took off for five relaxing days at Pacific Grove and Carmel. What Dolly enjoyed the most (and wouldn't any woman?) was not having to cook!

Host Two Parties
After giving the neighborhood Christmas party, the Don Childers decided to celebrate winning the Christmas home decorations award, and gave the neighborhood New Year's party too! The Wildwood-Ellis group was there in fine fettle, as usual!

Bea and Ray Meade had the Maddux drive gang over for dancing and New Year's Eve gayety. Helen and Jack Baumgartner, Dolores and Ash Helmer, Betty and Harold Chipevere, Don and Gwin Mitchell, Vern and Jean Box and used-to-be-neighbors Ruth and Guy Perkins, with Guy's father as special guest, were all there. Unfortunately, several other invited couples couldn't make it because of illness. They missed a terrific smorgasbord, among other things.

Bud Matheny decided his new Chevrolet station wagon hadn't really been put to the test, so tried it out on a trip to his family's home in Portland, Oregon, for Christmas. Bud, Evelyn, Linda and Dennis are now back home in Daly City, having had a wonderful Christmas, and report that there was no trouble traveling either way, and that the station wagon behaved beautifully. Of course, it might have been because Bud wanted to show it off, including the new license plates, just about the first of the new kind to be seen in these parts!

Storm Works
We saw John Hess up on his roof the other day, taking steps to prevent further loss of shingles in future storms. This has become the chief project of most of our Village homeowners lately! Wife Mary was dutifully handing up all necessary nails, etc., but took time out to tell us that the 87th Street Sewing Circle had had a Christmas party, with Irene Hess coming up from Belmont, and Emily Hager coming from Carlmont to join their ex-neighbors Dagny Golladay, Jean Brugge, Marion Spry, Zoe Andrade, and Stella Magoon.

Mary also gave a jewelry party lately, with Ellen van Heck, June Rodondi, Flo Olmo, Sydney Hess, Vivian Kaufman, Jean Brugge and Evelyn King coming to dream over some very pretty bangles and beads.

New Babies
This being Leap Year, Mrs. Stork took over for a while, and started things off right by bringing three new young ladies to live in our town. Linda Marie McVicker, 8 lb., 10 oz., arrived to stay with Harold and Rosemary and young brother Philip on Village Lane. That was December 28. On December 30, along came 7 lb., 7 oz. Margaret, fourth girl for the Stan Wilsons on Maddux. Sisters Susan, Elaine and Kathy, Judy tells us, are most enthusiastic new "mothers"! The January 3rd arrival was Mary Ann Toschi, who is now at home on Sweetwood drive with Evelyn and Al, and young Allen and Linda—to say nothing of a very proud grandmother! Evelyn's mother, Mrs. Ralph Baldwin, will be the nurse in charge around the Toschi home for a while.

New Year's Eve in a motel may sound kind of dreary, but it wasn't for the Art Bullens and friends from Mill Valley. The motel was just outside of Yosemite, and the whole gang was on the way to a holiday in the snow, including five very excited children. Betty said the valley was beautiful, with the falls all full and each rock in the river capped with a puff of snow. Of course the fathers in the crowd had to do all sorts of fancy sledding, and there were snow men to make and snowballs to throw and all the other ways of getting snow all over, including down the back of the neck! It was too warm for ice skating, though, and maybe it's just as well. There are quite a few sore muscles left as mementos of all those trips up and down hill!

More Parties
Foothill wasn't without its welcome to the new year. Mabs and Vic Guz were the hosts, and the Wandts, Leeches, Guymons, Dethlefsens, Chichesters, Joneses, Brands and Jack and Dottie Lyon from Westlake were the guests. . . . And farther on up the hill, on Stoneford, Edyth Mullen planned and gave a New Year's Eve party which was also a surprise birthday for her brother Mike. Guys and gals ringing the Mullen doorbell that evening were Bob Comstock, Ray Navarra, Phil Delucchi, Jim Treanor, Jerry Rosenberg, Gary Pederson, Bruce Freeland, Bill Strassburger, Ron Doyle, John Mullen, Nancy Golladay, Joan Baird, Claire Wittig, Sherry Sisk, Diane Brown, Nadja Colby, and Jane Taffay. Jane is an ex-Broadmoorite who now lives in Chula Vista, and she was Edyth's house guest for the weekend.

A very special Christmas dinner, which actually was given before Christmas, belonged to Den 4 of Pack 84. They were entertained by Gordon and Gregory Feist, with Den Mother Madeline as chief chef in charge. Stephen Milam, Chuckie Suenderman, Roger Elder, Ronald Johnson, Bobby Ellis, Bob Cowan and Gordon Sibbald were the very excited, very pleased and very happy diners. Madeline as well as the dinner and her own Christmas family doings, she spent days gathering clothing for flood victims from as far as Millbrae. Having been one once herself, she knows what it's like, and those of us who never have been should be grateful.

Annual Breakfast
Bill and Louise Cloonan left Village Lane early New Year's morning and went to the Cliff House for breakfast. This has been an annual occurrence for the last five or six years, and, as always, the holiday fun made up for it. But the Getz family won $10 for their Christmas decorations, and then Terry Christmas had a twelfth birthday with 14 guests! Everybody had lunch and then went to the show.

High Praise
One of the sweetest, most serene people we have ever had the pleasure of meeting was Dr. Nellie Holman, mother of Harold and Mildred Holman of Westlake. As a medical missionary who spent many years in China, she told of her experiences at the year's first meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association. Her book, "My Most Unforgettable Patients," more experiences, and Chinese cookery were the subjects of the conversations over refreshments afterwards. Her patients, no doubt remember Dr. Holman as their most unforgettable doctor—as much for the twinkle in her eye as well as for her busy hands and strong faith.

The year has had a sad beginning for one of our families, for Kathleen Sifford and her brother, Walter Cox, lost their mother recently. Mrs. May Cox stayed with Walter on Gilman, and helped keep things going for the family when Kathleen was in the hospital all that time recovering from her severe burns. She was there, too, when Kathleen came home in time for Thanksgiving, to help care for her as well. We would like to offer Kathleen, Walter, and their other brothers and sisters our deepest sympathies and our hopes that the year ahead will become a happier one for them with time.

Get Well Wish
Herewith a special get well wish to Ampara Arejula on Wildwood, who has been too ill too long, and to all of our parents who have had colds and things and to our young Villagers who have had the usual uncomfortable collection of mumps, sniffles, coughs, etc. A good dose of sunny weather would probably help a lot!

A sort of double-decker birthday celebration went on at the Village Play School lately. Jeff Bentz, a Westlaker, was 4 on January 3, and Danny Riggs, a Broadmoorite, was 5 on the same day. They settled the problem by one having a party at the school on the 3rd and one on the 4th. Jeff also had a family dinner party at home, and Danny had another all-out affair, with Greg Gilman, Susan Cross, Lisa Medrano, Billy Riggs, Joey Kivesahl, Peter Senter, Wally Kivesahl, Marc Seman, Gary Hewett, Jan Macklin, Payl Dryden, Jeff Lawrence, and, of course, Jeff Bentz!

Betty and Bud Christmas came up to the old homestead from Bakersfield for the holidays, and spent the time with Betty's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Getz, who are now living in the Foothill house where the Christmases used to be. They had a hard trip up because of the weather (what else?); traffic was bumper to bumper and they had to come by way of Tracy. Took them 10½ hours in all. But the holiday fun made up for it. First, the Getz family won $10 for their Christmas decorations, and then Terry Christmas had a twelfth birthday with 14 guests! Everybody had lunch and then went to the show.

This and That: Troop 84 of local Boy Scouts is happy over the way Villagers bought their Christmas wreaths, and grateful, too—over 300 homes were proudly & properly hung with green, courtesy of the troop. . . . Word has it that Village Lane's Lorraine Lee, who spent last year studying like mad for her credential, is now teaching 1st grade in the 87th Street school. Welcome to the new schoolmarm! . . . Broadmoor housewives in various mud-covered sections of our town manned coffee-pots all day Sunday, keeping the crew who were clearing the streets and sidewalks well supplied with hot coffee. Who was on the crew? All the Broadmoor police reserves, and all the officers and all the commissioners, plus volunteers. We even saw a bunch of boys busy with shovels down on Washington street. So, because a lot of people gave their own time to help their community, sidewalks which were covered with mud in the morning were cleared and washed completely clean by afternoon. There are a lot of householders who will join us in saying thanks.

The first homestead in the United States under the Homestead in the United States under the Homestead Law was taken by Daniel Freeman, a Civil War soldier, on January 1, 1863, near Beatrice, Nebraska.

St. Martin's Mission Holds Annual Meet

Reports of all organizations of St. Martin's Mission, Episcopal, were heard Tuesday evening when the congregation met for its first annual parish meeting in the vicarage at 94 Palmdale avenue.

MRS. GATES TO EDIT PTA MAGAZINE

Mrs. Francis A. Gates of Westlake was ratified as the new editor of Seventeen, the monthly bulletin of the Seventeenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, at a recent district executive board meeting. Known for her work as publicity chairman of Westlake PTA last year, Mrs. Gates will be in charge of compiling and editing Seventeen, and will work with other members of the district communications department.

Introduction of new projects for the next few months comprised the majority of business at the board meeting, conducted by Mrs. George Elliott of Pescadero, district president. Among these projects was the announcement that a Daly City-Colma group of mothers-singers has been organized under the Jefferson High School Adult Center, and will meet each Monday evening at the high school from 8 to 10 p.m. Mrs. Muriel Vint will conduct the rehearsals, and all interested members of local PTA units are welcome to join the group, according to Mrs. Arthur Breyfogle, district music chairman.

Polio Film

With most units preparing for the annual March of Mothers at the end of this month, the district health department presented a film put out by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and starring Helen Hayes, whose own daughter died of polio. This film was announced as available to all district units; those wishing to show it at unit meetings may call Mrs. L. E. Engleman at EM 6-6008.

Mrs. Engleman also invited unit health chairmen to attend the California Rural Health Conference to be held in Fresno on January 20 and 21. There is no attendance fee.

The parent education department, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Foley, has arranged for another series of lectures similar to those given by Dr. Norman Graff during the fall term. The new series, "Adolescents and Their Parents," will be held at the Sequoia Union High School in Redwood City, starting January 25. With Dr. Jeff Lewis, San Mateo psychiatrist, as lecturer, the programs will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 for seven consecutive Wednesday evenings. Adult registration fee is $1.00.

Plan Program

The six PTA units in the Millbrae area have joined together to present six programs of films and discussion to be held Monday evenings at 8 p.m. The first, to be at Highlands school on January 16, will feature the film "The Terrible Twos and Trusting Threes," followed by discussion led by a panel of mothers from the Millbrae Cooperative Nursery school.

INSTALLATION OF NEW OFFICERS AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

The installation of the newly elected congregational officers for 1956 of Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, will take place in the second church service next Sunday morning, at 10:45 o'clock. The following will assume the responsibilities of their respective offices: W. R. Brown, president; G. E. Asplund, vice-president; R. O. Carmann, secretary; L. E. Hargreaves, financial secretary; Donald Schaefer, treasurer; Alex Fleischauer, head usher, and Vernon Baxman, assistant.

The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will conduct the service and is in charge of the installation. The annual meeting of the congregation will be held on January 22, at which time these officers will take up their duties.

The plans of an extensive mission program are being formulated, and committees are being organized at this time.

Bethel church is participating in the flood relief program of the California-Nevada district. Clothing has been gathered for the flood victims and special offerings are being solicited from the members.

The Sunday school and adult Bible class meet at 9:30 a.m., and two divine services are conducted at 8 a.m., and 10:45 a.m.

Others are as follows:

January 23—Chadbourne school. Film, "Children's Emotions." Richard Averill, teacher at the College of San Mateo, discussion leader. January 30—Green Hills school. Films, "Human Beginnings" and "Human Growth." Dr. Jon Rossell, obstetrician, discussion leader. February 6—Lomita Park school. Film, "First Lessons." Marion Koehler Rowe, of TV's "Adventure School," discussion leader. February 20—Glen Oaks school. Film, "Family Affair." Rev. Lawrence Whitfield, pastor of the Millbrae Community Church, discussion leader. The concluding program will be on February 27, at the Taylor Avenue school, with "You and Your Family" the film featured, and a panel of parents and teachers of teenagers to discuss the standards for dating and parties. Host PTAs will serve refreshments at all meetings, and the public is invited.

Christmas Gifts

Christmas gifts from 17th District, in the form of some 75 volumes of Brailled textbooks, were mailed out in December to blind school children throughout the state, according to Mrs. J. M. Flohr, Braille librarian.

Mrs. Eoldest Cunningham and Mrs. Robert Pool, both of Daly City, will be among those district officers invited to special state PTA workshop meetings in San Francisco on Friday, January 13, following the California Congress board of directors' January session. Mrs. Cunningham is citizenship chairman, and Mrs. Pool juvenile protection chairman, for 17th District.

Yerba Buena Parlor Of NDGW Founded In 1939

Editor's note: This is the eighth of a series of articles on local women's organizations. THE RECORD will feature each women's club listed in our files in alphabetical order.

On the afternoon of December 9, 1939, a group of women met at the Sir Francis Drake hotel to institute a new parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West to be known as Yerba Buena Parlor No. 273. Although comprised mainly of San Francisco women, many local ladies are members.

The order, open to California-born women of good moral character who are citizens of the United States, claims four principles: Love of home, devotion to the flag, veneration of the pioneers and abiding faith in God.

In keeping with its policy of seeking restoration of the California Missions, Yerba Buena parlor just this last year had a valuable and lasting part in the redemptory services of Mission Nuestra Señora De La Soledad.

Philanthropies

Another object of the order is to be of service to all mankind. Yerba Buena parlor observes this tradition by selecting a different philanthropy each year, among which have been the giving of gifts to the men of Yountville and to the ladies at Laguna Honda home.

Bringing this tradition "closer to home," the sunshine chairmen sees that eligible members receive birthday, get-well and other remembrances.

Other projects to which the parlor donates are the Children's Foundation and the Native Daughter home. Yerba Buena Native Daughters visit the Native Daughter home once a year for a special breakfast, at which time they make their donation to the home.

Monthly Meetings

Luncheon is served to Yerba Buena members every month preceding meetings which are held the first Thursday of the month at 1:30 p.m. The parlor has the dis-

Colma Parents Turn Out For Health Confab

Colma PTA of Jefferson Elementary school had a good attendance of parents last Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Mervin Nofziger presiding. Mrs. Emma Hammond, kindergarten teacher read the character thought, "A Prayer for Parents" from the "Seven-eena."

Following the business meeting the school nurse, Mrs. Georgia Pritchard, assisted by Mrs. Clara Ballou, fifth grade teacher, conducted a health conference giving two instances concerning the pupil in school: the child who was shy because of poor teeth, and the child who was inattentive because he could not hear well.

Many defects are noticed and brought to the parents attention by the teacher and school nurse, they said. If there are problems and the parents can not afford proper care for their youngster, assistance will be given through the school health department and the county health department, they added.

The film entitled "Family Circles" was shown by Mrs. Pritchard. Mrs. Gino Marchetti, vice president and program chairman stated: "All parents should see this picture showing the influence parents have upon their children as seen within the school."

A nominating committee was chosen to name a slate of officers to serve in the Colma PTA for 1956-57. The committee is Mesdames Geo. Bertucci, Wm. Swartz, Adolph Silvestri, Gino Marchetti and John Gastavine. Alternates are: Mesdames Sanford Vickers, J. Picardo Jr. and Andrew Castle. First meeting is slated for Friday, January 13.

Sewing and sunshine meeting is postponed from January 12 to January 19, 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Andrew Castle, 354 Abbot avenue.

Thursday, a parents committee for the purpose of a survey of preschool children in Jefferson Elementary school district met with area captains at the administration building. Area captains chosen for Jefferson Elementary school are: Mesdames Gino Marchetti, Adolph Silvestri and President Mervin Nofziger.

On January 24, 1:30 p.m., a civil defense meeting will be attended by representatives of this unit.

On January 31, from 7 to 8 p.m. there will be a march of mothers for the March of Dimes. Mrs. Marchetti was asked to be in charge of the committee.

Auto Registration Ahead 80% In '56

Motor Vehicle registrations throughout the State were issued in larger volume during the first week of 1956 than in the same period in any other recent year.

Paul Mason, State Director of Motor Vehicles, said: "The new 1956 license plates have attracted people to the offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles earlier than in the years when small tabs only are issued to renew the plates. The 1956 totals were ahead of 1955 totals by as much as 80 per cent at comparable dates at some points. The overall increase in the first week is approximately 250,000 registrations."

But the director warned that a slowing of the rate of applications is likely to occur in the second and third weeks of January. He urged motorists to secure their plates and certificates as early as possible, to avoid the traditional rush and crowding of the final week, Jan. 30 through Feb. 4.

Rampaging Jeffs Win Over Scots, SM; Face Burlingame Tonight, Cap Tuesday

Jefferson High school varsity basketball team came from behind Tuesday in the final quarter to conquer a highly-regarded San Mateo club and register their second straight PAL victory after dropping nine straight practice tilts.

A jump shot by forward Larry Pottenger broke a 38-38 deadlock at the end of the third quarter, and the Indians were never headed as they swept to a 52-45 win.

The local lightweights suffered their second straight defeat, as they bobbled a 19-11 half-time lead with third-quarter foul-tits and dropped a 44-33 decision.

Pottenger led the way for Jefferson Tuesday as he made good on four of five jump shots attempted and wound up with a total of 16 points for the night.

On Short End

The Jeffs were on the short end of a 20-13 score at the quarter, trailed by 28-24 at the half, and moved to a 38-38 tie at the end of the third quarter. Two jump shots by Pottenger, who was utilized as a floating center put the Indians ahead to stay.

Following Pottenger in scoring were Bill Curtis, 12, Darrell Hutchenson, 10, Tom Cloutier, 6, Bob Comstock, 4, and Ray Schultz and Ray Vuilleminroy, 2 each.

Curtis was the giant for the Daly City team on defense, while Schultz excelled on the rebounds, getting 18.

Cloutier was impressive in scoring all six of his points on three tip-ins.

The Jefferson varsity will seek a third scalp tonight when they play host to Burlingame at the high school gym.

By contrast, the local 30s will be after their first victory of the season.

Probable starting line-up for the varsity tonight will be Larry Pottenger and Darrell Hutchenson at forwards, Ray Schultz at center and Bill Curtis and either Ray Vuilleminroy or Tom Cloutier at guards.

Regular guard Jim Honeywell may miss tonight's contest after being in sick bay all week.

Tuesday the local varsity will face probably their biggest test of the season in a strong Capuchino club which has two straight victories.

The Capuchino contest will also be played on the home courts.

Tonight's basketball double-header opens with the 30s game at 7:30 p.m.

The 30s looked good during the first half, gunning to a 9-1 first quarter lead, 19-11 at the half. A full court press by the Bearcats in the third quarter disjointed the Indians, as they allowed the opposition 22 points, mostly on free throws. The Indians were on the short end of a 33-29 score at the end of the third quarter, and were never in it after that.

Ryan High Scorer

Gary Ryan topped local scoring with 10, followed by Barry Haanan, 9, Puzzy Firth, 6, George Rocchi, 5, Al Dye, 2, and Dennis Marc, 1.

The Indian varsity had little trouble downing Carlmont Friday, 65-39.

Pottenger was the cog in the Jeff offense as he tanked 18 points after entering the game in the second quarter.

Hitting every one of his points on his agile jump shot, Pottenger paced a rally that put the Indians ahead, 27-23, but two charity tosses brought the Scots within two points at the half.

The Indians opened the second half with 11 straight points to practically ice the victory. In the third quarter, the Jeffs banged away for a total of 21 markers.

Trailing Pottenger in scoring were: Hutchenson and Schultz, 11 each; Jim Honeywell and Curtis, 8 each; Comstock, 4; Cloutier, 2; and Vuilleminroy, 2.

The Indian lightweights were in the contest all the way in losing, 40-35 to the Scot five.

Lead At Quarter

Leading, 11-6, at the quarter, the Indians waned in the second period and were behind, 18-15 at the half. Outscoring the Carlmont club by one point in the third period, the Indians cut the margin to 30-28.

With 20 seconds to go, the Daly City 30s trailed by only two points when Jeff's Al Dye banged heads with a Carlmont player. Although Dye was knocked cold for a full five minutes, the referee called the foul on the Indian player and awarded Carlmont two free throws. The Scot player sunk the first, but was taken by a teammate who dropped in a two-pointer, leaving the Indians five behind when the buzzer sounded.

Dye led his team with 11 points, while Firth and Haanan collected 8 apiece, Ryan, 4, Rocchi, 3, and Weld, 1.

William M. Eddy, who made several early-day surveys of San Francisco, later became State Surveyor General.

REC CAGE PLAY RESUMES AFTER 2-WEEK HOLIDAY

The Daly City Recreation Invitational Basketball League for seventh and eighth grade boys resumed Saturday after a two-week lay-off due to the Christmas Holidays.

In the "A" division, the St. Gabriels Eagles remained undefeated by downing OLPH, 46-26. High man for the Eagles was Watson who poured through 22 points, while Bill Whalen of the OLPH five was meshing 18.

The Eagles continue to be pursued by their cousins, the St. Gabriels Seagulls, and a fast moving five from Laguna Salada. Both clubs continued undefeated. The Gulls were victorious over St. Michaels, 42-22, while Laguna Salada was edging Holy Angels 32-26. High for L. S. was Henry Caldwell with 12 digits, while McHugh from H. A. was hitting for eight.

Broadmoor Hawks put together fast moving second and fourth quarters to defeat a hard pressing, and determined five from Lincoln, 47-24. High for the Hawks was Howell with 14, while Bill Pett of Lincoln was pouring through 18 points for the losers and beautiful work off the backboards.

St. Stephens took their second in a row with a 44-18 triumph over the Broadmoor Comets. While Larry Moon was high for the Comets with 4 points, Bill Altofer of St. Stephens was meshing for 6 field goals and a free throw to chalk up 13 points for the afternoon.

Holy Angels continued to lead the loop in the Class B division along with Colma when they took a forfeit win from Brisbane. Colma, meanwhile, continued to stay in contention by defeating the Broadmoor Dodgers, 56-8. High for the losers was Homes with 4 while Sonny Stoller and Barry Krohn were gathering in 18 and 14 points, respectively.

The St. Gabriels Raiders took their third consecutive victory when they defeated OLPH II, 42 to 2. Leading scorers for the Raiders were Bell and Hansen with 8 points apiece.

The game of the day in the B Division was between Laguna Salada and OLPH I in which L.S. took a very close 13-12 win. Both clubs emphasized defensive games. Leading man for the winners was

Trio Of Aces At Merced Golf Club

Holes-in-one ceased to be unusual at Lake Merced Golf Club last weekend.

Acing the cup at the local course were Art Linhares, Daly City policeman, Leonard Block, San Francisco jeweler, and Dr. Sam Bleadon, a SF dentist.

Block sunk the 290-yard number six hole, while Linhares aced the 110-yard eighth hole with a nine iron.

Dr. Bleadon also got his hole-in-one on the eighth, while witnessing the event were Daly City police chief Roland Petrocchi, Sam Cohen and B. Poncetia.

While the course was sizzling with these one-strokes, a horde of players practiced for the Crosby tournament now underway at Pebble Beach.

Local golfers turned in the top scores, as Bob Silvestri and Ken Venturi of Westlake had 68 and 69, respectively, Harvie Ward of Parkmerced stroked a 69, and John Geertsen of Broadmoor fired a 70.

Jim Baker with 6.

WESTMOOR HIGH IS ACCEPTED IN PAL

Westmoor High school of Daly City and Cubberly High of Palo Alto are the newest members of the Peninsula Athletic League.

The two prep schools were admitted into the league at Monday's meeting of the board of managers in Redwood City.

Addition of the two schools raises the PAL membership to 16. Both institutions plan limited athletic activity in 1956-57. Westmoor was tentatively slated for completion in September of 1956, but because of delays in construction, school officials now estimate the project may not be finished until several months after that.

Local Cops Arrest W'lake Woman For Drunk Driving

Local police arrested a 43-year-old Westlake secretary Saturday afternoon after her car crashed into a parked auto on Bel Mar and Crestwood drive Saturday afternoon, they said.

Charged with drunk driving, driving without an operator's license and making an illegal right turn is Helen R. France, 43, of 190 Southgate avenue. Mrs. France, released on $250 bail, is scheduled to appear in municipal court on January 19.

Officers said when they arrived at the scene of the accident they found that an auto owned by Ken McKee, 26, insurance salesman of 199 Bel Mar, apartment 3, had been sideswiped. Driver of the other vehicle apparently had sped off after crashing into McKee's car.

Upon investigation, officers found a damaged auto parked further down the street. Inside was Mrs. France.

The secretary was not able to alight from the auto without assistance from officers, they said. She was taken to Junipero Serra hospital where a sobriety test

BROADMOOR GOLFER NAMED TO PHILIPPINES HALL OF FAME

Larry Montes, 44-year-old Broadmoor resident, became the first golfer ever to be elected to the Philippine Sports Hall of Fame, according to a telegram received here this week from Wil Hernandez, president of the Philippine Sports Writers association.

Montes, who lives at 1024 Washington street with his brother-in-law, Adriano Delfino, holds an unequalled string of firsts for Filipino golfers.

He was the first golfer from his country to turn professional, first to win the Philippine National Open, and first to win any foreign golf titles.

Last year Montes added to his conquests the Joe Dimaggio tournament held in San Francisco.

His selection to the hall of fame has been a much-heralded item in the pages of Philippine newspapers, and he was interviewed by trans-Pacific telephone call earlier this week.

The Philippine hall of fame was instituted in 1954, and only one outstanding sports figure is selected each year. Montes becomes the third person to be designated for the honor and the first golfer ever chosen.

Montes started playing golf while a caddy in the Philippines and after turning professional won the admiration of an American businessman in the Islands who sponsored Montes on a world tour in 1931.

The slightly-built golfer spent several years in Japan, where he twice won the Japanese professional title. Returning to the Philippines, Montes won the National Open 13 times for an unparalleled accomplishment.

While gaining these accolades he managed to establish a course record in Manila that has never been equalled.

In exhibition matches with top-ranking American pro Gene Sarazen, Montes came out on top.

Montes' family, a wife and five children, are making their first trip to this country on January 31 and will arrive here in mid-February to make their home. Montes says he hopes to remain in the Daly City or Broadmoor area.

Montes works as professional at the Colma Driving Range, but manages to find time to keep his hand in tournament play.

Only this week he travelled to Del Monte to play for a spot in the Bing Crosby tournament at Pebble Beach.

Colma School Cage League Underway As 22 Clubs See Action

The Colma school intra-mural basketball league got underway this week, with 22 teams seeing action in the four divisions.

In the seventh grade American league the Leopards, Thunderbirds and Red Devils all turned in opening day victories, while National league winners were Redskins and Rams.

Eighth grade competition found the Cheetahs, Buckeyes and Hepcats of the American league victorious in the opening round, as were Eagles and Alleycats of the National league.

Students do their own refereeing and must take a test to qualify for the positions. The following boys have qualified to date: Gary Baughn, Tony DiVirgilio, Bob Perdue, Billy Reynolds, Roy Roberts, Jim Frederickson, Douglas Calvin, Roger Stahl, Bill Sarris, Ron Klingler, Jerry Hyndman, Birney Young, Bill Hix, Jim Garadis, Frank Silverman, Donald Brown, John Junglas, Don Neville and Jerry Morgan.
